

A CLOSER LOOK AT NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

YOU ARE HERE

FORSYTH STREET VIEW

Dockser Hall, adjacent to the Knowles Center, is the hub of activity at the School of Law. With student comfort and needs in mind, Dockser Hall is both an inviting space and recipient of the gold level of the LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Green Building Rating System.

Located at the ground level between the Knowles Center and Dockser Hall, Cargill Hall is home to most of our faculty and some administrative offices.

The Knowles Center is located at the corner of Huntington Avenue and Forsyth Street. This building includes the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, the Office of Academic and Student Affairs, and other staff suites along with the main entrance to the Law Library.

DOCKSER HALL

COMMONS (GROUND FLOOR)

Students gather to relax or study in this lounge, which includes a kitchen. Seminar rooms are also on this level.

STUDENT ORGANIZATION OFFICES (GROUND FLOOR)

This area is headquarters for all of the law school's student groups.

MOOT COURTROOM (160 DOCKSER)

The moot courtroom provides students with modern technology and functionality.

CLINICS (140 DOCKSER)

The clinical program's suite includes a reception area, interview rooms, faculty offices, workstations for students and a library.

CLASSROOMS AND CLEAR (SECOND AND THIRD FLOORS)

Four tiered, sun-filled classrooms dominate Dockser's second floor, while the Center for Law, Equity and Race (CLEAR) office is located on the third floor.

CARGILL HALL

FACULTY OFFICES

Faculty members welcome students to drop in for conversations about class assignments, research projects, selecting co-ops and more. Each full-time faculty member arranges office hours convenient to students.

LLM OFFICE (51 CARGILL)

The LLM Office welcomes prospective students and provides academic advising to currently enrolled LLM students.

KNOWLES CENTER

OFFICE OF ACADEMIC AND STUDENT AFFAIRS (202 KNOWLES)

This office is the focal point for the academic and administrative concerns of all enrolled students.

OFFICE OF ADMISSIONS AND FINANCIAL AID (101 KNOWLES)

The Office of Admissions and Financial Aid offers in-person and virtual appointments for prospective JD and LLM students, class visits and campus tours led by current students. For more information about visiting campus or setting up virtual appointments with admissions and financial aid counselors, please visit our website at law.northeastern.edu/jd-visits.

OFFICE OF THE DEAN (120 KNOWLES)

The offices of the dean, associate dean for administration and several other administrators are located in this suite.

CENTER FOR CO-OP AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT (125 KNOWLES)

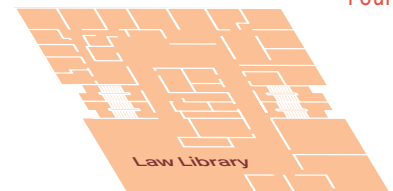

The Center for Co-op and Career Development provides guidance to students in the job acquisition process and counsels students on all aspects of their co-op experiences, from job selection strategies to succeeding in the workplace. With more than 1,000 co-op employers in 40 states and co-ops completed in more than 70 countries, Northeastern lets students tailor their experiences to their professional goals with strategic advice from the co-op staff.

LAW LIBRARY (THIRD-FLOOR ENTRANCE, KNOWLES)

The Law Library includes reference collections, a quiet floor, reading rooms, study carrels and conference rooms for student use.

Fourth Floor

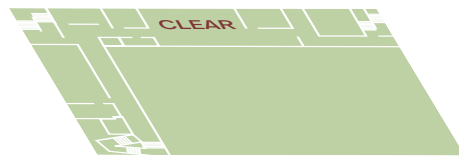

Third Floor

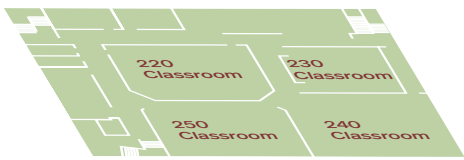

Second Floor

First Floor

Third Floor

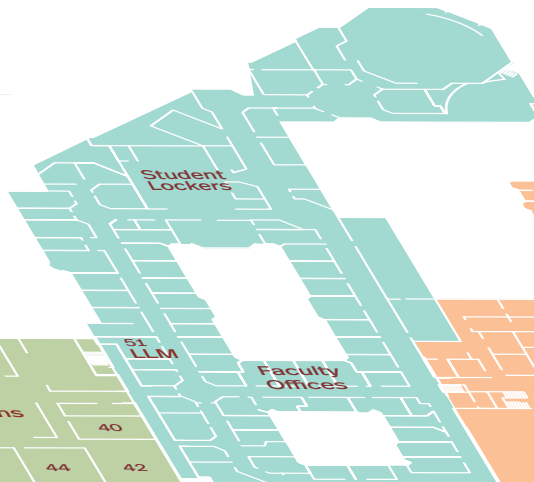

Second Floor

First Floor

Ground Level

Ground Level

DOCKSER HALL (DK)

CARGILL HALL (CG)

KNOWLES CENTER (KN)